

How to apply

To apply for accommodation at Reading Student Village you should complete and return this application form to the address indicated below.

If we receive initial approval, an offer letter will be sent to you with details of where to access the terms and conditions and halls hand book. You should read both carefully before completing and returning to us, with a cheque for £200 deposit, as the contract will then become binding between you and the University.

Please return this form to:
